Changes from Year 2022 data

The last batch of Census 2021 was released by Statistics Canada on November 30, 2022. In our current updates, we have incorporated all components of Census 2021.

Since Census 2021 was conducted during COVID-19, crisis management measures like lock-downs, work from home policies, and income subsidies caused significant distortions in population statistics. For example,

- 1) During COVID, a significant portion of people worked from home, or stopped working temporarily. This caused a high unemployment rate. Now many of them are employed and have returned to their workplaces. This also impacts commuting patterns.
- 2) During COVID, a significant number of people lived in their cottages, vacation homes or with their relatives outside of the city and downtown areas. Now many of them have returned.
- 3) In 2020, government wage subsidy programs such as CERB and extended EI caused a sizable increase in the income of low income households. Now their income is back to the previous level/trend.

To mitigate these shortcomings caused by COVID-19, we have incorporated historical trends, post COVID surveys, and current year research and publications like Labour Force Survey from Statistics Canada into our 2023 updates of SuperDemographics. In particular, for Census 2021, Statistics Canada introduced many new variables, re-grouped some variables, and dropped variables which are no longer applicable or below population count thresholds. See below for a few examples.

1. New variables:

Household Composition:

- HH_CP: Couple-family households
- HH_CPCH: With children
- HH_CPNC: Without children
- HH_OPF: One-parent-family households
- HH_MULGEN: Multigenerational households
- HH_OFMAP: One-census-family households with additional persons

2. Re-grouped variables:

Dwelling Construction Year:

- DW_CON1115: 2011 to 2015
- DW_CON1621: 2016 to 2021
- DW_CON22_: 2022 and after

3. Dropped variables:

New group "Indigenous identity" replaces the old term "Aboriginal origins". This discontinues the variables below and many more.

ET_ABOO: North American Aboriginal origins
ET_NAIND: First Nations (North American Indian)
ET_INU: Inuit
ET_ONAO: Other North American origins
ET_PROV: Other North American origins, n.i.e.
ET_EURO: European origins

To keep consistency with Statistics Canada's publication, we adopted the Census 2021 definition of all variables.

Column C in each Tab indicates whether the variables are new in the current updates.

The last two Tabs: "New" and "Removed" list all new variables and dropped variables.

Education

Variable	Description	New Var
	"Highest certificate, diploma or degree" refers to the highest certificate, diploma or degree completed based on a hierarchy which is generally related to the amount of time spent 'in-class'. For postsecondary completers, a university education is considered to be a higher level of schooling than a college education, while a college education is considered to be a higher level of education than in the trades. Although some trades requirements may take as long or longer to complete than a given college or university program, the majority of time is spent in on-the-job paid training and less time is spent in the classroom.

Ethnicity

Variable	Description	New Var
	Ethnic Origin Refers to the ethnic or cultural group(s) to which the respondent's ancestors belong. Ethnic or cultural origin refers to the ethnic 'roots' or ancestral background of the population, and should not be confused with citizenship or nationality. Ethnic origin data are very fluid, and counts for certain origins, such as 'East Indian' and 'Black,' may seem lower than initially expected. Users who wish to obtain broader response counts may wish to combine data for one or more ethnic origins together or use counts for ethnic categories such as 'South Asian origins' or 'African origins.' (Please note, however, that 'African origins' should not be considered equivalent to the 'Black' population group or visible minority status, as there are persons reporting African origins who report a population group or visible minority status other than 'Black.' Conversely, many people report a population group or visible minority status of 'Black' and do not report having 'African' origins.

Ethnicity

Variable	Description	New Var
	Ethnic origins by region under this row are derived variables. They were created by summing up all responses within that region. The sum of these groups will exceed the total population because the latest Census (2021) allows respondents to choose more than ethnicity, i.e. this represents multiple ethnic origins.
